

Rep. Christian Coomer
R-14

Biography

Christian represents portions of Bartow and Floyd Counties. He is a graduate of Lee University, Cleveland, Tennessee, and the University of Georgia Lumpkin School of Law, Athens. Christian served four years on active duty in the United States Air Force Judge Advocate General (JAG) before opening his own law practice in Bartow County. He still serves as an Air Force Reservist attached to the Jeane M. Holm Center at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, where his duties include advising the national commander of the Civil Air Patrol (CAPUSAF) and the commander who administers the Air Force ROTC programs across the nation.

Locally, Christian has served as a member of the boards for several non-profit organizations including the Good Neighbor Homeless Shelter, Adairsville Church of God, and North Bartow Toys for Tots. In addition, he is or has been a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Optimists, Civitans, Exchange Club, Bartow County Bar Association, NRA, Georgia Carry, Advance Adairsville, Company Grade Officers Association, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and others.

Christian met his wife, Heidi, at Lee University, where she earned her degree in Music. They have two sons, Christian, 9, and Collin, 5.
